

PIERCE NIELSEN

Biography

Pierce Nielsen is a rising Folk/Indie Americana singer-songwriter whose live sets turn heads, hush rooms, and bring even the toughest bar crowds to stillness.

Pierce Nielsen is currently based in Rexburg, Idaho while studying music and business at BYU-Idaho, with roots and active performance history across Arizona, Montana, Utah, Idaho and California.

Pierce's 2025 live release series is led by "Contrite (Live)," recorded outdoors in Montana.

As his following grows, one thing remains true: whether he's playing a forest stage, a college coffeehouse, or a backwoods tavern, Pierce delivers a show that's as intimate and unforgettable as it is entertaining.
